SCHEDULE ON THE DAY

Children are encouraged to develop their total personality at their own pace and within their individual growth and education styles, laying the foundation for a lifetime of creative learning.

We have created a program that allows children to learn, grow and play in an environment specifically designed for them. Your child will be a member of a community of young minds, who are guided by experienced, qualified Montessori educators.

8:00-11:00-during this time the children will be working on developing their concentration, focus, co-ordination, good work habits and refinement of their senses working with the practical life and sensorial areas. They will work on learning basic skills of mathematics and reading. They will look at the world through geography, zoology, botany and science.

11:00-11:30- circle time...mon-wed: theme work Thursday: French/mandarin Friday: Music and movement

11:30-12:00 outside
